

National Professional Qualification for Headship (NPQH)

Application Window Now Open for Autumn 2020

The NPQH is designed to support participants to become highly effective school leaders, with the skills, confidence and knowledge to drive and inspire successful team performance across a school and improve outcomes for pupils.

Since 2013 the Surrey Teaching Schools Network has run the national leadership programmes for over 2000 leaders. It is committed to developing outstanding leaders who can transform schools and ultimately improve educational outcomes for young people. Feedback from the leadership programmes has been overwhelmingly positive. Many participants say that their experiences on the course have helped them to secure promotion.

The following details provide an outline of the eligibility criteria, content and assessment of the NPQH.

Who Can Apply?

- ◇ Those who are, or are aspiring to become, a headteacher or head of school with responsibility for leading a school. This includes those who are, or are aspiring to be, a head or head of school with cross-school responsibilities e.g. a National Leader of Education (NLE).
- ◇ All participants must complete an application form to assess their eligibility.

Content

The programme includes 6 face-to-face days, 8 weeks of facilitated online learning and the opportunity to share and learn from the experiences of practising school leaders from a variety of backgrounds and educational contexts.

The programme will be run over a 18 month period; participants will be expected to complete the assessment at the end of this time.

There are 6 areas of learning which will be delivered through five discrete units:

- ◇ Strategy and Improvement
- ◇ Teaching and Curriculum Excellence
- ◇ Increasing Capability
- ◇ Managing Resources and Risks
- ◇ Working in Partnership/Leading with Impact

There are 4 two week online courses which are facilitated by a team of expert online tutors.
